BID TO STOP HGVS OVERTAKING ON A34

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A PLAN ta ban lorries from overtak ing on the A34 is to be put forward by Oxfordshire County Council to government

Councillors discussed the measure of banning heavy goods vehicles from using the fast lane between the junc- tions of the M40 at Bicester and the M4 near Newbury on Tuesday afternoon at County Hall in New Road

They voted with 51 in favour and nine abstentions of asking that council leader Ian Hudspeth writes to the Sec retary of State for Transport Patrick McLoughlin about the issue.

A spate of accidents in recent months involving large vehicles has shut the road for several hours

The motion was put forward by Patrick Greene county councillor for Didcot East and Hagbourne

He said "Every time there is a sig nificant accident aff ecte roads are congested with traffic trying to avoid the hold ups on the A34

"I believe it is sometimes sheer frustration by HGVs overtaking one another with speed governors slightly at variance resulting in overtaking time running into several minutes"

Littlemore homes plan will be reconsidered

Cllrs back plan to stop lorries overtaking

• From front page

He added "In my opinion far Oxfordshire we need an urgent remedy and that is to keep all HGVs to the inside lane in both directions between the M4 and M40."

Last December a lorry crashed into a broken down bus on the A34 near Abingdon.

In January a car transporter went through the central reservation between Abingdon and Didcot and in February a lorry overturned by the Marcham Interchange.

And last week speed limits for HGVs on single carriageway roads was upped from 40mph to 50mph nationally.

But Jark Godfrey director of Stanford in the Vale-based haulage firm J Godfrey and Son did not think the plans would mean fewer accidents.

He said "It seems rather daft to start with.

Why do they up the speed limit at the beginning of April then next minute turn around and stop them overtaking and compromise the lorries?"

He added "It is completely out of this world."

• The overtaking ban would be in force from the M4 to the M40 if approved by the Secretary of State for Transport

• The land south of Armstrong Road in Littlemore where housing could be built

PLANS for a 270 home development in Littlemore that were turned down by Oxford City Council last week are to be re-examined.

The council's East Area Planning Committee last Wednesday voted to refuse outline planning permission to proposals to build houses south of Armstrong Road.

They voted five votes to two in favour of refusing the development citing concerns over increased traffic and a lack of infrastructure.

But the committee's chairman Roy Darke who voted against turning down the development has called in the decision to the council's Planning Review Committee on April 29 so it can be discussed again.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylormessenger.co.uk

He said "What worried me about the refusal against officer recommendation was that we are saying there is a massive housing need in the city.

"We're trying to talk to the district councils who are providing their local plans about sufficient housing development sites which would help Oxford by having some of Oxford's overspill.

"What I was worried about frankly is if we refused this we'd blow a whole in our own local plan and in a sense not make us look entirely credible when we're saying there's a massive housing need in the city if we're turning down sites which will provide over 250 houses."

The Armstrong Road site had been allocated for employment in the council's local plan – which details where developments should be built in the city.

Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust which owns the land and put forward the proposals wants to change the site's use to residential housing.

They refused to comment while the plans are still being considered.

Oxford's history makers are feeling 'phenomenal'

Anastasia Chitty celebrating (picture by Getty Images)

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan.t@oxfordmail.co.uk

OXFORD University women's rowing team president Anastasia Chitty called the women's achievement 'phenomenal' after making history at The Boat Race.

Oxford's men's and women's teams completed a clean sweep victory over Cambridge in London on Saturday.

It was the first time the women rowed on the same course as the men in the Thames - despite the women's varsity having been launched 70 years ago.

Chitty, a 21-year-old medical student at Pembroke College, spoke of the achievement after months of arduous work.

"I feel very blessed to have been brought into the world at such an exciting time for women in sport," she told the Guardian.

"It's humbling to reflect on and so exciting to look forward to all the girls and women who will race in the future.

"The overriding emotions I'm feeling are of joy, followed by excitement for next year."

"It's an absolutely amazing race to be part of."

Both the male and female teams secured a comfortable victory amidst tricky rowing conditions.

While both the male and female reserve teams also beat Cambridge, completing the 4-0 thrashing over the weekend.

The women's race could barely be considered a fair fight as Oxford never deterred from an early dominative period.

Cambridge were left chasing Oxford's wake from the first minute and the Dark Blues, who had gold winning Olympian, Caryn Davis powering them on at Stroke, never looked like rescinding their lead.

They ousted their rivals, finishing six and a half lengths in front of them and by 19 seconds as the event was televised for the first time.

The men's 160th race got off to a flyer as Oxford battled just ahead of Cambridge to put themselves a length ahead at the mile point.

The water became rougher and Cambridge were left scrambling to keep up as Oxford took the initiative in the middle section.

The men slid under Chiswick Bridge victorious, falling back in jubilation as their expertly fashioned win beat Cambridge by 19 seconds and six lengths.

The men's team president and GB World Champion, Constantine Louloudis, also joined a select few in history with four Boat Race wins.

POLICE have released a photo (below) of a man they are looking for after an officer was hit on the head with a bottle thrown during last week's protests in Oxford.

The incident happened at around 1.50pm on April 4 in Park End Street during the English Defence League (EDL) and anti EDL demonstrations in the city.

A bottle was thrown, which hit and injured a 31 year-old police officer.

The officer suffered cuts to his head and was treated by paramedics at the scene.

Two people have been charged with one count of using threatening words or behaviour to cause harassment, alarm or distress.

Western Conveyance reaches £100m mark

By Adam Flinn
adam.g.flinn@newspapers.co.uk

FOREIGN secretary and Thames Valley Flood Minister Philip Hammond paid a visit to South Hinksey on Tuesday as the budget for an Oxford flood relief river reached the £100million mark.

Mr Hammond met with residents from South Hinksey who last year were severely affected by flooding after the River Thames twice burst its banks.

At the time the army were drafted in to erect temporary barriers to stop rising water levels from reaching the village.

The Oxford Area Flood Partnership – comprised of local councils, the Environment Agency, Thames Water and Network Rail – is sourcing £120m to build the Western Conveyance flood relief channel from Botley Road to Sandford Lock.

Mr Hammond said: "I've been involved as the Prime Minister's flood envoy for the Thames Valley and the discussions since then about getting the Western Conveyance scheme funded and up and running.

"There's £20m to £30m still to come, and a lot of that will be for long-term maintenance which can come at the back end of the building phase so it doesn't act as a barrier to getting going.

"We're confident that the funding will come through over the years but it's not all needed now it's over a period of years."

Plans to have temporary barriers on standby at South Hinksey in the meantime were also discussed.

Ground work to create a path they can be erected on is due to start in September with volunteers from the village set to be trained to put them up when they are needed at short notice.

South Hinksey resident Maggie Rawcliffe spoke with Mr Hammond on Tuesday.

She said: "Last year we had the army and everybody out here (to put up the barriers) and that proved they worked, it set a precedent.

"So we should be ready for the rainy season in that we will have the ground work done and people trained to put up the barriers.

"Until the Western Conveyance we are still at risk of flooding, but we will have these temporary barriers should flooding threaten again.

Revving up to 1,000mph

A 1,000MPH supersonic car engineers are hoping will break the land speed record this year applied its brakes for a stop in Oxford on Tuesday.

The version of the Bloodhound car parked up outside Oxford University's Advanced Research Computing site in Keble Road.

Its designers are aiming to break the current record of 763mph later this year by reaching 800mph.

This is well above the speed of sound barrier of 761mph.

Franz Nehammer, a Bloodhound team member, said: "The plan is in August that we will run in Newquay on a runway doing loads of shake down tests.

"After that it will be taken out to South Africa where it will run on a specially prepared 12 mile by three mile track to run the car at speed, and hopefully break the record this year and run away with it next year."

Next year they want to break the 1,000mph milestone.

The car will be driven by Andy Green, who piloted the Thrust SSC car to the current land speed record back in 1997.

Franz said: "Andy's the only guy on the planet who has driven supersonically so he has the best CV we could ask for."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months in Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are already up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of this service.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all short service.

"Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we just replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window. In any type of frame and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money although that's how it all began.

Many double-glazing companies have struggled in the last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority, perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which in a way is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is adamant that his approach is a major factor in his success. "I think that I get a lot of personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.

So if your windows are misted up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help.

Brush theft

WITNEY Three hundred hair brushes were stolen from a Witney company last month

Two men used a ladder to disable CCTV cameras at Data Plastics, based off Station Lane, between 11.30pm on March 13 and 12.30am on March 14, before breaking into the building.

They then searched the production room and stole 300 Lulu Guinness design Tangle Teezer hair brushes

Fake murder

OXFORD Budding sleuths from across the county took part in a fictional murder investigation at Oxford University over the Easter holiday

Around 60 teenagers aged 12 to 15 took part in 'Murder in the Cloisters' as a student was found dead on the university grounds and everyone became a suspect.

Tara Prayag, head of widening participation at the university said "It gives young people an exciting experience of university life as they work together to find the answers."

DNA evidence could help find Janet's killer

POLICE relaunched an investigation into the brutal murder of an Oxford research nurse on the 20th anniversary of her death on Friday after new DNA evidence came to light

Janet Brown was gagged handcuffed and repeatedly hit over the head at her home in Sprigs Holly Lane Radnage near Chinnor on April 10 1995

The 51 year-old mum of three who worked as a research nurse at Oxford University's Public Health and Primary Care department was home alone at the time of the attack.

It is thought a burglar broke into the home and attacked Janet, although nothing was taken from the house

On Thursday Janet's daughters Roxanne and Zara Brown made a heartfelt plea for any one with information to come forward

Roxanne said "Our mum's murder was planned and brutal and the horror of her death stays with us every day

"She was attacked and killed in our family home, a place where we should all be safe

"There is new DNA evidence that will help Thames Valley Police bring the killer to justice, but we need your help to find them

"[Janet] was a kind and loving person and her death broke our hearts."

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Police revealed new DNA evidence has been found from an item at the house at the time of the murder

The item, which police refused to identify had been kept in their archives since, and advancements in DNA techniques has meant it can now be investigated further

Peter Bearne, head of Thames Valley Police's Major Crime Investigation Review Team, said "Part of our review involved submitting items for further forensic tests in the hope that we could utilise advancements in forensic science in the last 20 years

"Some of those tests have revealed a DNA profile which doesn't belong to the family

"We believe that the evidence will add strong support to link the offender to the scene."

A £20,000 reward is being offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the murderer

Aldi's grand opening in Didcot

A NEW Aldi supermarket is opening its doors for the first time this morning

Mayor of Didcot Scott Wilgrove is due to open the store in Lower Broadway at 8am

The shop has created 35 jobs in the town – five more than was originally stated when the plans first went through.

Store manager Andrew Richardson said: "We would like to thank local residents and supporters of the new store for their patience throughout the development

"The team and I are looking forward to meeting local residents and hope that they take advantage of the great offers available

"We look forward to seeing everyone on the morning of the store opening"

There had been delays in granting planning permission to the store last year

South Oxfordshire District Council delayed their decision for long months while they awaited revised designs from Aldi

It is now opening 10 months after it was given permission by the district council

She used traditional techniques inspired by the Southern Ocean and New Zealand beaches

Lesley said: "I know there is a Kiwi exchange pilot flying with 30 Squadron at RAF Brize Norton

"We are proud of our military personnel who continue to support the UK"

It was delivered to the centre by Flight Lieutenant Kendall Dooley a New Zealander pilot, on March 31

He said: "The gift reflects the close relationship between the two nations"

The repatriation centre is used by families of servicemen killed on operations

Football sticker artists turn focus to politicians

AN OXFORD couple who last year completed a World Cup sticker album by drawing every player have turned their attention to the general election.

Alex and Sian Pratchett, from Iffley Road have put their artistic talents towards drawing the UK's key politicians

Prime Minister David Cameron Labour leader Ed Miliband and Ukip's Nigel Farage are among those who have already been given the 'sticker treatment' over the past week

The pair known as the Panini Cheapskates drew every footballer in last summer's World Cup for a 640 sticker album

I was watching the leaders debate and I saw Farage and co with their big mouths flapping away and thought 'there were some big features there,' said Alex

"So I sent a tweet out saying I might draw Farage uploaded it and it got quite a big reaction so I quickly did Miliband and Cameron

"In the next day or so, me and my wife, my partner in crime doing all the World Cup ones bashed out the rest of them.

"We haven't got an end game in mind just to put up a few more terrible pictures and see what people think of them."

Alex and Sian documented their efforts of drawing all the World Cup stickers on their website last June and July

By Adam Flinn
adam@oxfordmailnewspapers.co.uk

"The World Cup was meant to be a silly thing to entertain a few friends," Alex continued

"Then within a day it was all over the internet and I spent half my day on the phone and the other half drawing

"It's weird how some things take off, and it was the same last week when I drew Farage."

The pair are drawing more in the next few days

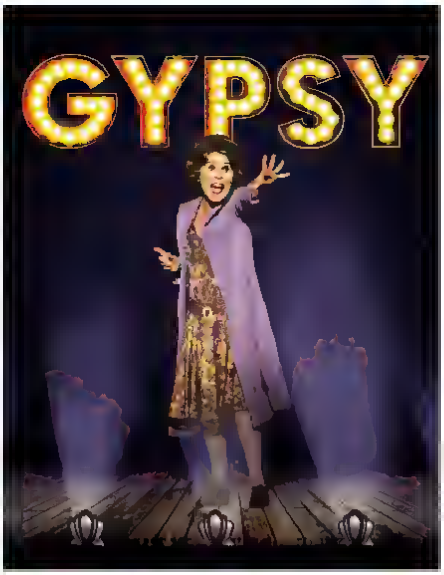
Competition

WIN tickets to Gypsy in London's West End



Don t miss Gypsy one of the greatest ever Broadway musicals as it transfers to the West End following its sell-out, rapturously acclaimed five star run at Chichester Festival Theatre

Imelda Staunton delivers a "knock-out performance" (The Independent) as Momma Rose in Jonathan Kent s "dazzling revival" (Mail on Sunday) alongside Lara Pulver who reprises her "stunning" (The Independent) role as Louise They are joined by Peter Davison as Herb in this gloriously entertaining musical fable that features "showstopping" (Marton Sunday) choreography from Stephen Mear

Based on the true life memoirs of legendary burlesque entertainer Gypsy Rose Lee it tells the tale of Momma Rose and her two daughters Baby June and Louise trekking across America in their family vaudeville act. But times are changing audiences are expecting more and the two girls have their own ambitions in mind The rise of burlesque is upon them and nothing will ever be the same again for Momma Rose

Closing date:
Friday May 1 2015

With lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, book by Arthur Laurents and music by Jule Styne this moving and "scintillating" (The Times) production of Gypsy is the first to be seen in London for 40 years

Poetry at the Playhouse

KNOWN for his poetry and use of cyclines, poet, publisher and broadcaster Luke Wright will be at the Oxford Playhouse next Wednesday, April 22

By James Richings
jamesr@taylormorgan.co.uk

The poet who was raised in Essex, is currently touring the country as part of his 'Stay-At-Home Dandy' UK tour which is the performer's eighth spectacle on the road as a solo performer since 2004.

The poet creates a brand new show every year.

"People often think that live poetry might be a dry and a reserved experience but my shows are full of energy and humour" Luke told the Guardian.

"I use alliteration, metre and rhyme to make my poems almost musical and I hope that my audience not only get a good story or an incisive bit of social commentary but also enjoy the performances simply for the sound the words make.

"I'm somewhere between a stand up comedian and the front man of a band. I also perform my poems at full tilt."

After being drawn to the lyrics of songs by Britpop's bands such as Blur and Pulp the then aspiring entertainer went and saw established poets Martin Newell and John Cooper Clarke perform gig in his late teens.

And after being inspired by one performance Luke stated that "he was instantly hooked" and within a month was on stage performing his own poetry.

He has since become one the most successful poets in Britain over the past few years.

Back in 2000 he along with good friend and poet Ross Sutherland formed Aisle16.

It started as a poetry club above a communist themed pub.

But now the club once just a team of four – allows different poets to come together, share ideas and write shows.

It has gone on to perform at many festivals including the Edinburgh Fringe and Glastonbury.

"I'm fortunate that I am able to make a living out of my work and that people like coming to watch my performances but I'd be writing poems even if no one wanted to watch them," Luke explained.

"Making art is a compulsion.

"I feel miserable if I don't write so I carry on.

"A desire to communicate what I create has meant I've found an audience for that.

"I try my best to nurture my artistic ambitions while taking career success (and failure) with a pinch of salt."

He added "Oxford, like any university town has an energy and vitality about it.

"The Burton Taylor Studio is a great room to play too.

Suitable for anyone over the age of 14, tickets cost from £8 to £10.

The show will start at 7.30pm.

Life of Riley

• Mike Roubottom as Simeon and Marilyn Johnstone as Monica

ALAN Ayckbourn's 74th play will be brought to life when the Snodun Players re-enact 'Life of Riley' at The Wallingford Corn Exchange until Saturday April 18.

Written back in 2010, the comedy stage production sees popular school teacher George Riley find out that he has only got a few months left to live.

Although George is never seen in the play, only referred to, six of his friends gather to remember their relationships with him.

They meet together to plan to make his last few months as comfortable and enjoyable as possible.

But their efforts result in compheat ing their own relationships in unforeseen ways.

Completely made up of volunteers, journalist and broadcaster Mike Rowbottom who stars in the play as Simeon told the Guardian the one thing he enjoys the most when performing to a crowd that love comedy.

"The laughter," he told the Guardian.

"You know when you have people with you that you can do pretty much anything and comedy more than anything lends itself to that.

"It comes down to that shared purpose again.

"If you're getting it right then everyone in the audience is laughing with you and there's a communal warmth for those couple of hours which you may not get at other times.

By James Richings
jamesr@oxfordnewspapers.co.uk

Regardless of Ayckbourn's best pieces of work, the production made its theatrical debut at The Stephen Joseph Theatre in Scarborough where the comedy play focuses on terminal illness, friendships and relationships.

The popularity of the play caught on with audiences around the world, which lead to a film adaption of the production being premiered in France last year where it became a critical and commercial success.

"The great thing about this kind of community theatre is the joint sense of purpose," Mike said.

"It promotes friendship, comradeship and gives a constant sense of achievement for no financial reward – in fact it usually costs us because it's our hobby.

"The Corn Exchange is a unique facility because it's the only game in town for Wallingford, there's no cinema, nightclub or professional theatre so everything centres on what we do there.

"It's magnificent in the way it serves the town."

Tickets cost £10 and the run of shows start at 7.45pm.

Call the Market Place venue on 01491 835000 for further details about the show or to book tickets.

Little Red Hen

CURRENTLY on a tour around the UK, the children's production Chicken Licken and the Little Red Hen will be at the Oxford Playhouse this Saturday, April 18.

Tickets cost from £6 to £8 with two shows taking place at 11am and 2pm.

Call the Beaumont Street theatre on 01865 305305 for more information.

Still Alice

LAST year's blockbuster 'Still Alice' will be shown at The Theatre in Chipping Norton next Monday, April 20.

Band 'psyched' to play in Oxford

By James Richings
jamesr@thelamerspapers.co.uk

GARAGE rock and indie band Demob Happy will be bringing their unique sounds to The Jericho Tavern in Oxford tomorrow evening April 17.

The four friends made up of Matthew Marcantonio (lead vocals and bass) Mathew Rennie Renforth (guitar and backing vocals) Adam Berry Godfrey (guitar and backing vocals) and Thomas Armstrong (drums and vocals) are currently adventuring on 26 day spring tour which will see the quartet perform as north as Newcastle to as south as their homelown Brighton promoting their latest EP, 'Young & Numb'.

And before setting off around the UK, the group had embarked on a small tour around Europe performing in locations such as Copenhagen, Hamburg and Berlin.

The enthusiastic quartet also revealed it to the Guardian which country they would love to perform in the future and why.

"We absolutely cannot wait to perform at the Jericho Tavern, as we believe it will be the most fascinating experience we've ever predicted," Mat thew told the Guardian.

"And if we had to choose a country to play in and why, we would most probably go for Egypt... just because of the pyramids."

Known for their two popular hits 'Suffer You and 'Succubus' the up and coming group have had plenty of positive feedback come their way.

Former Radio 1 DJ Zane Lowe once described the group's music as "deadly serious" whilst current Radio 1 presenter Huw Stephens called them "brilliant."

And a fellow Radio 1 presenter also had positive things to say about Demob Happy's latest hit 'Succubus' by saying: "I've been spinning this record like a clown spins plates."

However despite the praise, Demob have reiterated that the group's number intention is just to play music.

"Our set list on the night will be untamed and unruly but most likely it will be a bunch of Schlager covers," Matthew said.

He added "Also this is our first ever gig at The Jericho Tavern so we are incredibly psyched to be there!"

Starting at 8pm tickets cost from £5 to £10.

Call the Walton Street pub on 01865 311 775 for more information about the gig or to buy tickets which will sell out quickly.

Renault to show vast range of van conversions at final day of the CV Show in Birmingham

A diverse taste of Renault

By James Richings

THE NEC in Birmingham will be swamped with fresh-faced Renaults as the French manufactures showcase the diversity and versatility of its light commercial vehicle range at this year's CV Show.

The annual event which has taken place in every April since the year 2000 will finish today.

It is the largest and most ample road freight transport, distribution and logistics event staged in the United Kingdom, with Renault this year showcasing 17 vehicles and every automobile on show being available to purchase from July this year.

Renault's CV Show 2015 line-up will be made up of a number of different vehicles which includes seven different models from the Renault Trafic range, six diverse models from the Master range, two models from the very popular Renault Kangoo range, with one Renault Twizy Cargo Ambulance also being on show.

The Twizy became a huge topic of discussion back in January as it was used in an episode of Top Gear where James May drove the small car from one side of Russian's second largest city St. Petersburg to the other.

Steve Wilson, LCV Product Manager Renault UK, commented: "Renault recognises that every business is unique and has specific requirements. We are committed to providing vehicles to fit those needs.

"We try to tailor our range to suit the greatest needs with our factory built conversions so there is only one invoice and one contact, but for customers who require something more specific to their needs, our network of Approved Converters is skilled in building specialist and bespoke converted vehicles."

One main factor that could contribute to Renault's popularity at this year's event will be the company's four year 100,000 mile warranty with roadside assistance.

The extensive Renault warranty package with roadside assistance carries no mileage limit in the first two years and then adds a further two years of cover up to a maximum of 100,000 miles, with any material or assembly defects being rectified free of charge.

There is also a three-year paintwork warranty and six years' cover against corrosion.

Along with the warranty, roadside assistance also lasts for four years and is available throughout the whole day.

If the vehicle cannot be repaired at the roadside or outside the owner's home, it will then be towed to the nearest dealer. Onward travel with European cover is included for three years.

For more information, visit www.cvshow.com

* A wide variety of Renault vehicles will be on show

Didcot aiming high despite heavy defeat

DIDCOT Town joint manager Ian Concannon has claimed his side will be 'bigger better and stronger' next season after failing in the quest for the play offs

Saturday saw his side thrashed 5-1 by Evesham United in the Southern League Division One South & West

The result was a damp squib for a disappointing last home game of the season at the Loop Meadow Stadium.

Concannon said: "It is a bitter pill to swallow

We wanted to keep it going until the last game but it just wasn't meant to be."

Concannon believed the season had definitely been a success and that the Diddy have consolidated themselves as a top six team

"The players have given their all this season but I promise next season we will be bigger better and stronger."

Evesham made a blistering start to the game and scored two in the first 12 minutes via Adam Mann followed by a Matt Sysum penalty

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Didcot began to wake up and Pablo Haysham managed to snatch a goal after Evesham goalkeeper Kevin Sawyer parried the ball into the Didcot forward.

Diddy could have had a second before the break but Jack Longford sailed a close range effort over the bar

The second half led to more woe for Town after United's Marcus Jackson restored the two-goal advantage

Town went all out to try and salvage a result but their misery was extended when Lance Smith made it five with a superb volley and a close tap in.

Town now turn their attentions to a trip to Wiltshire to face off against Swindon Supermarine on Saturday

Concannon added "I'm confident we can get the result against Swindon but they are a quality footballing team and they could quite easily nick the three points of us"

Nine welsh players sign

NINE London Welsh players have committed to new deals in the last week The Exiles have announced

The club's front row quartet of Nathan Trevett, Koree Britton Nathan Morris and Ben Cooper all signed new deals on Tuesday morning

They joined the five backs, Seb Jewell, Alan Aweott Nic Reynolds, James Lewis and Will Robinson who also committed to the club on Friday

Trevett was ever-present during Welsh's Championship winning campaign last season racking up 41 appearances for the club in total.

Welsh have high hopes for Britton, who is a former representative for England in the U20 sides and has made 11 appearances for Welsh this season, scoring two tries

Jewell has made 94 appearances for the Exiles in all competitions since joining the club in 2011 from Wasps and is a double Championship winner with Welsh

Lewis is another man for the future and has scored 18 tries in 41 appearances from centre

Welsh director of rugby Steve Lewis said. The announcements are significant as we prepare to mount a challenge for an immediate return to the Premiership."

City up for the promotion fight, says boss Merritt

OXFORD City manager Justin Merritt rallied his team as he said that anything can happen in football after their promotion hopes took a dent in a 1-1 draw with Harrogate Town at Court Place Farm.

Merritt's team are seventh in the Vanarama Football Conference North Division and just four points off Guiseley who have a game in hand with two left to play

The match was a blustery affair on the pitch with City's Tim Winters knocking them into the lead early in the second half before Harrogate hit back with a classic striker's goal from James Walshaw

It was a result that Merritt believes has made their final two games of the season must-win matches

Merritt said "It's all in our hands really anything can happen in football and we've set ourselves up with the challenge of winning the last two matches

"We needed to win but looking back we remain positive and in reality we've performed very well this season."

Oxford started the game in a flash and nearly found the net through an early chance for ex-Harrogate player Adi Yussuf but Town's Peter Crook saved easily

Yussuf continued to test Crook later in the first half but Town finished the half the better team with midfielder Ryan Fallowfield failing to hit the target after a great a Jack Emmett cross

City finally broke the deadlock on 54 minutes through an attack down the right as a long ball into Town's area was dispatched coolly by Winters

The goal spurned Town's resolve and Emmet was in the midst of the action again to play in Walshaw who rounded City keeper Salva de la Cruz to score the equaliser

Merrill next takes his troops off to Lincolnshire on Saturday for their all important game against Gainsborough Trinity

Welsh show resolve in Wasps defeat

LONDON Welsh made early signs of improvement as they took another heavy 13 48 defeat to Wasps on Sunday

Wasps came out with a purpose and improved their top four hopes with help from Tom Varndell as the Coventry based team earned the bonus point they require

The result was far less humbling than the 71-7 defeat Welsh got handed to them at Adams Park earlier in the season

For 52 minutes the Exiles gave their all and managed to keep the tide at bay restricting the Champions Cup quarter final ists to just 5 12 at the break.

Varndell crossed the line for the Wasps twice in the open ing 10 minutes, with the first deemed controversial by a lor ward pass

Welsh then got back in the game through Opeti Fonua scoring his third try in 11 Premiership appearances for Welsh, and Pete Browne came within inches of adding another just before the break

Welsh started the second half well and Robinson s penalty closed the gap to four points

Wasps then turned up the heat and raced ahead through a try from Ashley Johnson and then Varndell completed his hat trick five minutes later

Andy Goode scored both con versions to make it 26-0 before the Exiles broke through and Chris Elder gave them hope with another try for Welsh.

Wasps attack proved too tough to handle and Michael Tagicakibau found the line from close range and Alpeti Leua added insult to injury in the dying moments with Wasps' final try

The result leaves Welsh unable to improve on their solitary

Cup's the priority for the yellows

NORTH Leigh manager Mark Gee has banged the drum ahead of their Oxfordshire Senior Cup final after The Millers consolidated mid-table with a 2 2 draw against Shrl wood United.

Gee has set his sights on securing the trophy for his ambitious side calling it a priority after their hopes of promotion from the Southern Football League Division 1 South and West were extin guished earlier this season

Gee s side fought back from a two goal deficit to draw level with the side from Gloucestershire despite a dominating first half display

North Leigh flew out the blocks against The Wood but lound themselves trailing just before the break when Shortwood s Josh Egan fired in an opener

Shortwood doubled their advantage 10 minutes after the break through Lewis Sommers before Leigh s Calum McNish brought one back and Jamie Cook found the equaliser in the dying minutes of the match

Gee told the Guardian, "We were really disappointed to come in 1 0 down at half time but we kept our heads and showed our worth

"We're going to look at finishing on a high so the cup final is now our priority but we also want to reach 100 goals in the league."

North Leigh have hit the net 95 times in the league this season and Gee feels that if they maintain the players they have for next season, they will score goals from all over the pitch

The Millers next entertain Shoking FC on Saturday at Eynsham Hall Park Sports Ground

They will face off against Banbury United FC in the Oxfordshire Senior Cup final on May 7

Ardley book place in Challenge Cup final

ARDLEY United secured their place in the Bluefin Sports Challenge Cup final with a 2 1 win against Rayners Lane on Tuesday night

United took control in the first period and found the opener through a good run from Conor Ingram

Ardley then gave themselves more breathing space with Jon Gardner netting in from close renge after a Otego Petriaggi free kick.

Rayners Lane did pull a goal back late in the second half with a Reece Chaudry effort from close range

In the Hellenic Football League Division One East, Henley Town continued their impressive season with a well-deserved 2 2 draw away at Burham Reserves on Monday night

The match was a rearranged fixture from early in the season when the game was called off at half time due to torrential rain.

Grant Kemp gave Henley the lead with a solid header before Andy Forusky converted a penalty for Burnham

Johnson gave the reserves the lead in the second half before Richard Reunell earned them a point.

Elsewhere in the division, Headington Amateurs were dealt their third consecutive defeat in a 2 0 defeat to Wokingham & Emmbrook.

And North Leigh United caused a stir in The Hellenic Football League Division One West with a 6 1 home win at Eynsham Park.

OXFORD MotoGP star Bradley Smith capitalised from a flying start as he came home sixth at the Circuit of the Americas in Texas on Sunday

Starting 10th, Smith jumped six places off the start to fourth at the first corner and set consistent times to keep pace with the leading riders up front.

He dropped back to sixth but kept fellow Brit Cal Crutchlow behind to end the race as the top satellite rider

"It was a great race and I am pleased with the result Smith said

"It began with a strong start and to jump from 10th up to fourth was pretty awesome

the risk I took to go around the outside of the pack at turn one paid off

"I am pleased with the outcome and to finish in sixth as the top satellite and only 10 seconds behind us definitely one of my best performances in my MotoGP career"

The result puts Smith sixth in the standings after two races with 18 points and he trails current series leader Valentino Rossi by 23 points

He returns to action at the Spanish track of Jerez on May 3

UNITED SNATCH LATE EQUALISER

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan.campbell@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A BIRTHDAY goal from Alex MacDonald in the dying minutes secured an unlikely draw for Oxford against a tough Northampton United side on Tuesday night.

A rather empty Kassam Stadium witnessed a mediocre United performance and The Cobblers were devastated after delivering a superior performance to the home side.

An Ivan Toney free kick gave Town control over the pitch for much of the game before MacDonald pounced in stoppage time to steal a point for the U's.

United remain 16th in the Sky Bet League Two table whilst Northampton stay mid-table and were gutted to not hold onto the three points.

The action on the pitch was fairly sleepy as no side really tested the keeper in the first 20 minutes.

Toney got the first real chance narrowly heading wide from a free kick as Town looked the most likely to find the opener.

Oxford looked disorganised and Town's Ricky Holmes looked to cause issues down United's right flank.

Toney then dispatched a powerful free kick in the 39th minute that bounced past rookie keeper Paddy Ashdown who was making his debut.

United came out in the second half with much more initiative and made the Cobblers work to maintain their lead, with Hylton coming close with a deflected shot striking the post on the hour mark.

The spark couldn't materialise for either side and the match became rough and messy as neither found the opportunities.

A chance fell in the final five minutes for Oxford with a whipped ball from Danny Rose but Long couldn't direct it goalwards.

Finally in the 91st minute an error from Cobbler's Shwan Jalal allowed MacDonald to slot home Danny Hylton's pass to secure United a point.

Speaking after the game, MacDonald said he was proud of United's efforts to dig deep to earn the point.

He said: "We dug in, showed our grit and determination.

We were a bit disappointed with our first half performance, our standards dropped tonight."

MacDonald's goal was his third league goal of the season and was delighted to grab the point.

"I'm absolutely made up to grab us a point," he added.

"We'll have to work hard till the end of the season but I'm sure we can reset and come back from the summer guns firing".

The U's travel to bottom side Tranmere Rovers at Prenton Park for their next match on Saturday afternoon.
